

Christy's dream

Christy has wanted a pony for as long as he can remember. Lots of other boys on the estate have their own horses, so now Christy's saved up enough money no-one can stop him making his dream come true. Except his mum. What will she say when he brings his new horse home?

Can you write your own version of this story? Use the story map to plan. Then use the story board to write your story.

