

Key Stage One RE

This week we are learning about stained glass windows. Nowadays, most people in this country are taught how to read, but learning to read was not nearly as common in the past. Art was a good way to tell people stories when lots of people couldn't read. Stained glass windows were, and still are, put in churches to tell stories, show important beliefs and to inspire people. Sometimes the pictures in the windows are good to help people understand difficult ideas too.

- First, look at the stained glass windows on the document on the website.
- Can you work out which stories from the Bible they are telling?
- See if you can finish off the sentence starters for three of the images?

When I look at this, I see...

I wonder....

The picture reminds me of....

A Christian might think when they look at the picture.

- Can you create your own stained glass window. Search online to see the variety—they don't have to be pictures of people!
